

Report

NAGC Auctions - 2017

Don't you just love numbers? How much? How many?

The NAGC Convention Auction in Myrtle Beach raised $2592.50 and the 3-day email "We Love Glads" auction raised over $5550.00 (minus spring shipping costs to send the bulbs on their way).

At the convention 20 people happily bid on 288 unique treasures, bulbs and certificates (plus Jim Otto's cap), and in the "We Love Glads" fast and furious email auction 37 people signed up to bid on 635 certificates, plant products, and many, many corms and cormels (foreign varieties, too).

Our auctions wouldn't happen without the corm and cormel donors (one or both auctions): Dave and Jean Kollasch, Jim and Karen Otto, Cliff and Doris Hartline, John and Barb Meyer, Honker Flats, Don Selinger, Alleman Glads, Dick Holtz, Jim Green, Summerville Gladiolus Worldwide and Bruce Elwell.

Our auctions wouldn't happen without certificate donors (one or both auctions): Honker Flats, Cates Family Glads, Peeters Enterprises, Blooming Prairie Gardens, Alleman Glads, Noweta Gardens, Old House Gardens and Pleasant Valley Glads & Dahlias.

Our auctions wouldn't happen without donors of items at Myrtle Beach: Jim and Karen Otto, Dave & Jean Kollasch, Jim Bach, Cliff and Doris Hartline, John and Barb Meyer, Jane and Marvin Bruce, Eileen Grant and Ken Jensen, Marlboro Bulb Co., and Dana Summerville or without donors of products for the email auction: Growth Products, LTD, PACE 49, Inc., Green-Safe-Solution, LLC and Plant Food Systems, Inc.

Our auctions wouldn't happen without many helping hands (Myrtle Beach): Karen and Jim Otto, John and Barb Meyer, Carla and Burt "the auctioneer" Scripture, Don and Barbara Selinger, Jim Butler, Dave Selinger, Tom Antikainen, Bruce Elwell and Allen Haas.

And successful auctions certainly wouldn't happen without the bidders who laughed while bidding and willingly wrote checks. Thanks for the memories!

The "Glad Quartet" - John and Barb Meyer, Jim and Karen Otto